

Former Chairman of the Westchester County Board of Legislators... Edward Brady died May 17, 2011. Ed was a strong advocate of Police Officers rights, wages and benefits in Westchester County.

He is responsible for stewarding legislation through the county of Westchester upgrading the status of Police and Correction Officers. The building of the Westchester County Police Academy, the increasing of Correction Officers from 400 to over 1300 and the building of the new county detention facility.

The merging of the Westchester Sheriff's Department and the Westchester County Parkway Police into the Westchester County Department of Public Safety. Supporting the separation of the collective bargaining units for Probation Officers and District Attorney Investigators.

We who are and were involved in law enforcement in Westchester County owe Ed Brady a deep debt of gratitude for all the benefits we enjoy today. He fought for all of us and we pray for him and his family during this time. God Bless Ed Brady he was a great man and a dedicated public servant.
