

FYI . . . Police Week was full of many memorable highlights and a more detailed summary will be provided later. In the meantime, though, I wanted to share two fundraising highlights:

- Police Unity Tour had more than 1,400 participants this year (most ever!) and they raised $1.5 million (most ever!). Please join me in extending congratulations and thanks to PUT Founder Pat Montuore, Executive Director Harry Phillips, Chief Financial Officer Jimmy Waldron, Trustee Brian Murphy and all of the PUT leaders and participants this year!
- Ford Motor Company Fund just notified us that we will be receiving a $50,000 capital grant for the Museum campaign. They only gave out $400,000 total in capital grants this year, so this is one of their larger grants given. We also have a much larger 7-figure ask pending with them—would come from their marketing department, as opposed to the Ford Motor Company Fund.

All the best,

Craig
